

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the private misuse of a publically owned good. It is my understanding that the regulation and prohibition of such misuse is one of the most fundamental mandates of the FCC.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Please see that it does so.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
